Chapter 1 by Sophia Hughes

I woke up this morning normal the dragons are outside. The others training I hate this talk about possible war. I still wonder what is beyond the gates?

People keep telling me not to go there. Well to bad! I can't not wait any longer! "Wow it is dark out here." I suddenly heard a noise. It was a dragon. I know because we have pets dragons back in the gates. But this one was different. I just could not tell.

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

I reached a hand out to it, and the dragon followed suit, shoving its snout into my outstretched hand. I breathed a sigh of relief. Excellent. It was clearly receptive to my power, and not an Outlier. Come to think of it, this situation could be easily used to my advantage.

Speaking sweet nothings as I went, I swung myself onto the massive creature's back. Why walk to the gate when I could fly there? And I would be perfectly protected, to boot.

"Let's go, girl," I whispered into the night. Without hesitation, the dragon shot into the sky...and not at the direction of the gate.
